DSOP COMMITTEE ON GENDER SENSITIZATION AGAINST SEXUAL HARASSMENT (COGSASH)

“Gender equality’ includes protection from sexual harassment and the right to work with dignity, which is a universally recognised basic human right. The Supreme Court of India in a landmark judgment in August, 1997, (Vishaka & others vs. the State of Rajasthan & others) recognising the International conventions and norms, interpreted gender equality of women in relation to work and held that sexual harassment of women at the workplace is a violation of Articles 14, 15, and 21 of the Constitution of India. It also amounts to the violation of the fundamental rights under Article 19(1) (g) “to practice any profession or carry out any occupation, trade or business”.

The Supreme Court judgment of 1997 makes it obligatory for every employer and other responsible persons to follow the guidelines laid down by the Court and to evolve a specific policy to combat sexual harassment in the workplace. Educational institutions are bound by the same directive.

DSOP is committed to creating and maintaining a community in which students, teachers and non-teaching staff can work together in an environment free of all forms of gender violence, sexual harassment, and discrimination on the basis of gender. DSOP strongly supports gender equality and opposes any form of gender discrimination and violence.

Definition of Sexual Harassment

The following shall constitute sexual harassment:

1. When submission to unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favours, and verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature are, implicitly or explicitly, made a term or condition of employment teaching/guidelines, participation or evaluation of a person’s engagement in any DSOP activity.
2. When unwelcome sexual advances, verbal or physical conduct such as loaded comment, remarks of jokes, letters, phone calls or e-mails, gestures, exhibition of pornography, lurid stares, physical contact, stalking, sounds or display of a derogatory nature have a purpose and /or effect of interfering with an individual’s performance or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.
3. When a person/s uses with sexual purpose, the body or any part of it or any object as an extension of the body in relation to another person without the latter’s consent or against that person’s will, such conduct will amount to sexual assault.
4. When deprecatory comments, conduct or any such behaviour is based on the gender identity/sexual orientation of the person and/or when the classroom or other public forum of DSOP is used to denigrate/discriminate against person(s), or create a hostile environment on the basis of a person’s gender identity/sexual orientation.

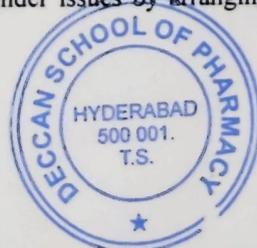

Gender Sensitivity Committee

The DSOP Gender Sensitivity Committee will be constituted by the Principal, in consultation with the DSOP community. The committee will have at least 50% of the members to be women and will have representatives of faculty, staff, and students.

Role of the Committee

The committee’s role will include the following:

- To take cognizance of complaints about sexual harassment conduct enquiries, provide assistance and redressal to the victims; recommend penalties and action against the harasser, if necessary.
- To recommend arrangement for appropriate psychological, emotional and physical support (in the form counselling, security and other assistance) to the victim if s/he so desires.
- To play a preventive role by making efforts towards sensitization of the staff, students and faculty members of DSOP on gender issues by arranging periodic programmes and lectures if required on gender sensitivity issues.
