DECCAN SCHOOL OF PHARMACY-Monthly Report (November 2025)

Theme-HEALTH CAMP PROGRAM

Organized by:

OWAISI HOSPITAL AND RESEARCH CENTRE & Department of Pharmacology, Deccan College of Medical Sciences

Date: 09-11-2025

Venue: BANDLAGUDA

Timings: 9:15 AM – 4:00 PM

A Free Health Camp was organized by Owaisi Hospital & Research Centre in collaboration with Deccan College of Medical Sciences at Bandlaguda on 9th November 2025. The initiative aimed to provide accessible and affordable healthcare services to the local community, raise health awareness, and promote preventive medical care.

Objectives:

- To offer free medical consultations and basic diagnostic services to underserved populations.
- To educate residents on preventive health practices and common lifestyle-related diseases.
- To identify individuals requiring further medical intervention and refer them to appropriate facilities.

Activities and Services Provided:

The camp featured a multidisciplinary team of doctors, nurses, and medical students who conducted:

- General health check-ups (blood pressure, blood sugar, BMI assessment)
- Specialty consultations in General Medicine, Paediatrics, Gynaecology, Orthopaedics, and ENT
- Free laboratory investigations for common conditions
- Health education sessions on nutrition, hygiene, and chronic disease prevention
- Distribution of free medicines for minor ailments

Participation and Impact:

The camp received an enthusiastic response from the community, with over 200 residents attending. Many participants benefited from early detection of health issues and received guidance on managing chronic conditions. The event also provided valuable practical exposure for PharmD students from Deccan School of Pharmacy. Acknowledgments:

The organizers expressed gratitude to the Doctors, other healthcare professionals, faculty
